

Denver's Only Youth GLBTQ Drop-in Center

January 2010@ Rainbow Alley

1050 Broadway, located in the alley; Denver CO 80203
303.831.0442; alley@glbtcolorado.org

1/08: Furry Nite: Unleash your inner beast! Join Frankie and Dylan to learn how to make ears and tails while enjoying some sweet tunes..

1/15 Gayme Night: Pente, Scrabble and Boggle, oh my!

1/22: Tea Party: IN honor of Alice in Wonderland, and our own Queenly culture—come enjoy a hot drink, some crazy costumes, and, of course, engaging conversation. A spot of tea for you, dahling?

1/30 Drag Show: Calling all Drag Queens and Kings to come and Strut their stuff.

Theater w/ Laurie: This program is going to consist of two parts. I would call this self-scripting, simply writing what is true for you. One part will focus on the participants writing their own truth/story. The other part will focus on generating a performance together. The Goal eventually is to create a colleague of theatrical material to be performed at a future date. It's about being seen, being heard, opening ones heart and telling your story. You don't have to be a performer or have prior experience to participate in this program.

Quings and Kweens Dance Crew: Strut your stuff with the hottest queers in town ! No previous dance experience necessary. The team is gearing up to perform at the 2nd Annual Colorado Queer Youth Summit

Saturday Dinner and a movie: Holy Cow! 10 years since the 90's?

Med Clinic and free HIV/STD testing, Tuesdays from 5:30 to 6:30: Free and confidential.

Membership Classes: Every Saturday become a member and have all the advantages of Rainbow Alley.

Rainbow Alley is a youth space. That means that the youth make it what it is. Please feel free to come in and put your ideas forth if you'd like to see something different happen at the Alley...we are always looking for new and creative ideas! See you around!
